

Pantun

Leaves fall from trees orange, yellow, red
Flying geese disappearing from view
The first time, was it excitement or dread?
My heart beats quicker when I see you

Heavy snow covers a tall fir tree
Many days the chipmunks sleep through
Knowing each other better is scary
Do you know I feel the same way too?

The snow becomes light, warm are the winds
Sleepy bears awakened and surprised
I present my heart to you with both hands
Struggling to go slowly as advised
